Peter is smart, fast, highly skilled, prompt and super respectful. He delivered subs with a better proficiency and speed than any previous contractor I worked with before. I'm writing this review after just our first collaboration, which I'm sure is the first of many.

I'm happy to provide a positive recommendation for our partner Peter. We have been working together for the last 5 years, on many projects: webdesign, SEO, photo/video editing. We are very happy with the professional results of mr. Peter. We always have great communication, discussing every project in detail and, most of the time, we can decide together the final outcome, so Peter always has a consistent input. We are confident that our relation will continue for a long time.
